

Role description

Corporate Tax Senior Associate
London

The opportunity for you

Key responsibilities

- The candidate will work alongside the partners, existing associates and senior associates to provide tax advice, principally to clients of other practice areas of the firm, but also to clients instructing the group directly.
- The firm operates across a broad range of practice areas and industry sectors advising listed and unlisted clients, with particularly notable and market-leading expertise in advising IP rich companies in the technology and life sciences arenas, real estate investment and development concerns (including REITs) and all forms of private capital-backed organisations, from private equity houses to family offices. The candidate may expect to work alongside fee earners from across the firm, but particularly in the corporate, real estate, finance, IP, IT and private client practice areas (there is scope to pursue particular interests and specialisations within the parameters of the wider business needs of the group and firm).
- Particular areas of focus will be M&A, private equity structuring and transactions, corporate and IP/IT structuring (including cross-border planning and inward investment to the UK), funds work, financing and refinancing transactions and domestic and international tax advisory work, real estate transactions and structuring (from both a direct and indirect tax perspective). Candidates will have experience in some or all of these areas.
- Candidates will also be encouraged to take an active role in business development initiatives driven both by the team and other areas of the firm and in the development and presentation of training programmes for the group and wider firm.

Knowledge, skills and experience

- UK-qualified solicitor or barrister.
- Strong experience working on corporate tax matters and transactions.
- Bright with strong technical ability.
- Strong client management and communication skills.
- Good personal organisation and file management skills.

Taylor Wessing supports agile working, and the Talent Acquisition team would happily have conversations with potential candidates about how we could support agile or flexible working needs.

Tax & Incentives

Our corporate tax team advise on the corporate tax aspects of a wide variety of matters, including domestic and cross-border M&A and structuring and restructuring, real estate, private equity and venture capital, investment funds, finance (including Islamic finance, asset finance and other niche areas), intellectual property and insolvency.

The team provides an integrated service with our lawyers across all practice and industry sectors acting on a wide range of transactions. Expertise includes the following:

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Corporate real estate transactions and financings
- IP planning and structuring
- Corporate re-organisations, restructurings and demergers
- IPOs and secondary offerings
- Inward investment
- Joint ventures
- Partnership and fund structures

The firm's corporate tax team currently comprises three partners, one consultant, three senior associates, one associate and one trainee solicitor. The corporate tax team work alongside two partners, one senior counsel, two senior associates, two associates and one trainee solicitor specialising in employment tax and incentives. The group benefits from the support of a paralegal and dedicated knowledge lawyers. We are looking for an associate to join this expanding team, focusing on corporate tax, preferably having at least 1 year's PQE with experience in transactional UK corporate tax work; a blend of corporate and real estate taxation experience would be preferable but is not a requirement.

Taylor Wessing in London

Located in central London, our office is a stone's throw from some of the UK's biggest names in technology, fashion and retail, as well as the courts housing the capital's legal profession.

After 15 years of being based in 5 New Street Square, in March 2023 we announced the decision to renew our lease and to invest in a full refurbishment of our office. This will create a modern workspace that supports our future business and sustainability objectives.

While the refurbishment is underway, we've temporarily relocated to Hill House, just a short walk from 5 New Street Square, which we anticipate will reopen in autumn 2025.

Why London?

London is one of the top financial centres in the world and a key international tech hub. Our UK lawyers combine their deep understanding of the law with their outstanding market knowledge to support some of the most innovative businesses across the technology, media and communications, life sciences and healthcare, real estate, infrastructure and energy and private wealth sectors that do business in the capital and beyond.

We thrive on the challenge of keeping ahead of legal and regulatory developments to advise our clients in these dynamic sectors who are pushing the envelope in terms of the products they develop and offer and the business and economic models they operate. Our UK and international strength in M&A, disputes and intellectual property complements our focus on our key sectors.

Our London team

Working alongside our lawyers, teams based in our London office support our UK and international business operations, including:

- IT
- Strategic Digital Ventures
- Finance
- Talent
- Risk
- Business Transformation
- Business Development, Marketing and Communications.

Anyone who works for Taylor Wessing in London becomes part of a fully integrated, UK-wide team. This is a fantastic firm for talented people who are intellectually curious, ambitious and want to work in one of the best cities in the world.

Diversity & Inclusion

Mansfield Certification

We are proud to announce that we have achieved Mansfield Rule UK Certification Plus for the 2023–2024 period, reaffirming our dedication to diversity, equity, and inclusion within the legal sector.

We're committed to delivering an inclusive culture and a progressive environment where we empower all our people to lead, learn and grow. The Mansfield Rule keeps us and the wider legal profession accountable for achieving and surpassing these goals; over the last year alone the Mansfield Rule has helped us continue to focus on monitoring our recruitment and promotion activities, as well as improving the diversity of our firm.

We've seen tangible changes in our firm from championing diverse voices across all areas of our business, something we want to see continue to flourish in the years to come and with Mansfield as a key partner in building in an inclusive environment for all.

Responsible Business Networks

We embrace individuality and bring diverse teams together, creating an inclusive work environment where all of our talent can flourish. Our inclusion programme has five priority areas, each with partner champions and network groups, in addition to other networks and societies that bring people together within the responsible business programme.

Our current networks include:

- Arts Society
- Balance in Business - our gender balance network
- Cultural Diversity network
- equaliTW - our LGBTQ+ network
- Family Matters network
- Social Mobility network
- Sustainability network
- Wellbeing network
